

Discuss Filling Stream

The filling in of Apuakehau stream between the Moana hotel and the Outrigger club was discussed yesterday by the city planning commission. It was pointed out that the present time is opportune for filling this creek, as the dredger for the Waikiki drainage canal could perform the work at comparatively small cost. A request will be made for data concerning the ownership of property on either bank of the stream.