And now the fight is on between all the possibilities for a chance to make the swimming team that is to go to Los Angeles next year.

Helen Vernon made quite a splash in Los Angeles, coming from the Outrigger club, but just imagine the splash when a half dozen mermaids from here land there.

Incidentally Helen Vernon finished second in one of her races in Sutro baths recently and it made her so angry that she has not lost a race since.

There is a story floating around that Duke Kahanamoku is already homesick for the beach at Waikiki. It isn't any wonder! Those who know what a lure the beach has understand why he is homesick for it.

They may have wonderful beaches on the coast and wonderful baths but they have no surf like the surf at Waikiki, so say the beach lizards.

If anybody has the impression that the public baths beach is not used a visit out there on a Sunday afternoon is worth while.

And when the natatorium is finished out there the number using it will be greater than ever.

All the swimmers are resting up now after the hard training prior to the Aloha meet.
