

SWIMMING SPLASHES

Last night at Indianapolis, James Hall, Jr., of the Central swimming club of Brooklyn, won the national junior championship for the 150 yards backstroke in 2:46.2.

At the same place last night, Euphrasia Donelly of Indianapolis, won the 220 yards free style national junior women's championship in 3:07.4.

The swimmers are wondering what is delaying the building start on the swimming natatorium.

Jack Longley, former Healan representative on the A. A. U. and now a pineapple man in the country, dropped into town the other day for a short visit.

There is some talk of the Outrigger Canoe club staging a day of beach sports at the club some time in September.

The next meeting of the Hawaiian A. A. U. is scheduled for Monday, August 7.

Mrs. E. Fullard-Leo, secretary of the Hawaiian A. A. U., has been ill at home for several days past with a cold but is back at her office again.

"Mouse" Smith, Outrigger Canoe club swimming, who has been over on Hawaii for some weeks past on a vacation is back in town.

"Buster" Brown, another Outrigger swimmer who has been away for a vacation, has returned to Waikiki beach.

Tandem surf board riding is coming back strong at Waikiki and the number of double riders out has increased enormously of late.

How vain even the champions! Mariechen Wehselau, champion mermaid of Hawaii, dislikes staying out surfing too long because the sun spoils her complexion.

BRUIN COACH BACK TO SINGLE HEAVEN

With the return to Berkeley of the former Mrs. "Andy" Smith, pretty wife of the football coach of the University of California "wonder team," under her maiden name of Miss Bobbie Hollingshead, news of a secret divorce in Chicago last January leaked out yesterday.

Being the hero of college students took too much of Smith's time, it is alleged, and too many celebrations attending victory on
