

SWIMMING SPLASHES

You'd think a swimmer needed only a bathing suit to travel with, but they say Ethelda Bleibtrey has six trunks.

Then take Estelle Cassidy, Outrigger swimmer, who leaves this week for Washington, D. C. She has two trunks and several handbags with her.

The name of the ohiaberry hound owned by Helen Moses, Outrigger swimmer, is Moki, which is Hawaiian for Moses.

All the Outrigger club male swimmers are busy with the sailing canoes these days.

Helen Wainwright will probably not be able to come to the big October meet here.

D. L. Conkling is again being boosted for the presidency of the Hawaiian A. A. U.

The annual meeting of the Hawaiian A. A. U. is scheduled one week from tonight.

Kapiolani Kahanamoku promises to be one of the mermaid stars for the Hui Makani at the next swimming meet.

The medals for the natival event winners and the Olympic games medals are at the A. A. U. office.

Ruth Stacker hopes to be appointed as swimming instructor in the local public schools.

Mariechen Wehseleau was recently presented with a pair of striped carrings by an admirer. Mariechen is star swimmer of the Outrigger club.

The big surf at the beach at Waikiki ended a week ago and since then the place has been like a mill pond.

Dolly Mooney, Outrigger Canoe club star swimmer, leaves shortly for the mainland. She is to enter school in San Francisco.

TO PLAY AGAIN

BERKELEY, Cal.—For the first time since the University of California returned to the American game of football, the Bear freshman this year will play a majority of its games against California high school teams.