

SWIMMING

Duke Kahanamoku took part in an aquaplane race at Alamitos bay carnival recently.

Dorothy Waters, Outrigger Canoe club swimmer who recently returned from Los Angeles, has grown into quite a big girl.

Helen Moses of the Outrigger Canoe club is out to make the team that goes to Pasadena next year. She is training for the longer distances.

Hilda Miller is one of the coming Hui Makani stars who is out on a surfboard daily.

Sam Kahanamoku, Hui Nalu swimmer, is back from his trip to the coast.

The Outrigger Canoe club girls' relay team will have a new mark to shoot at. The New York girls recently set a new world record.

Estelle Cassidy, Outrigger swimmer, is in New York at present. The academy in Washington, D. C., which she is to attend, does not start its session till October.

Hilda James, English girl swimmer, will not be able to be present in Honolulu for the October meet.

Harold "Stubby" Kruger is a lifeguard at Edgewater beach in Chicago.