

Swim Entries Close Monday

Entries for the October swimming meet are to close on Monday at noon at the office of E. Fullard-Leo, secretary of the Hawaiian Association A. A. U.

Trials will be held in all events where there are more than five entries, including the diving. In the diving the men's and boys' trials will be held together. Eliminations will limit the final entries to five in each division. The dives for the eliminations will be four compulsory and two voluntary. The compulsory dives will be swan, back, front and back jackknife.

Events will be staged according to time schedule and those not appearing will not be entered in the meet. Those absent from the trials will also be barred from participation in the meet.

Practise for swimmers will be permitted every afternoon at Punahou, the women using the tank at 4 p. m. and the men at 4:40 p. m. On Thursday night special arrangements will permit the use of the tank by the Hui Makani swimmers, and on Friday night by the Outrigger talent.
