fy. The sheriff announced today that he will at once begin work on the preparation of a schedule of Democratic campaign meetings. The first meeting of the campaign will be held at Aala park on the night of October 24. Rather broad powers have been given the sheriff as campaign manager. He will consult with the finance committee to decide upon the exact amount of money to be raised for the campaign, and the amount that each of the candidates is to be assessed toward the campaign fund. The sheriff will act as arbiter of all disputes between or among candidates, and from his decision there will be no appeal.
