NAVY FAVORITE TO SNATCH BIG GAME FROM PALS

Auld May Or May Not Come in From Kauai; Boat in Tomorrow From the North

The Navy is favored to win tomorrow from Palama when the two teams clash at Mottill field, commencing at 2:30 p. m. But while the dogs favor the Navy, it is not a large edge. The reason for that is the possibility of Eddie Fernandez of Punahou and Kenny Auld of Kauai being on the Macon team.

Fernandez will be on the bench in uniform, but will not be used unless he is needed. Whether Auld will play or not can only be decided when the boat arrives from Kauai tomorrow morning.

The report from the Navy camp is that the sailors are all in good shape except Brown and that he is in fair shape and will probably start.

The probable lineups when the whistle blows follow:

Pos.	Navy	Palama
P.	Handberg	Whittington
R.	Boothwallis	Wardman
C.	Dane	Keane
L.	Carruthers	Dexter
S.	Quinn	Boon
H.	Hayzer	Hospit
I.	Wright	Robinson
O.	Wilson	Melan
H.	Brown	Shaw
F.	Gates	Camacho
E.	Predrickson	Andrew
