SOCCER SEASON TO OFFICIALLY OPEN TOMORROW

That's the Latest Remark to Come From the Heads in Charge of Kick Game

The Honolulu soccer season will officially open tomorrow, according to the word issued yesterday by the secretary of the Honolulu Soccer association, providing that at the meeting tonight the fourth team is entered.

Tonight at the British club the delegates are gathering and the association has been notified that the Marines at Pearl Harbor have 16 men who have played soccer in the past. Jack Rosemond has offered to coach this material and whip it into a team. If the Marines enter tonight this will make a league of four teams including the Outriggers, Rangers, Palama and Marines.

There will be a doubleheader tomorrow if the league organization goes through tonight and Jupe Pluvius hauls in his watering-cart. The first game will be at 2:30 o'clock at Makiki field with the Outriggers meeting the Rangers. The second game will start as soon as the first is concluded and will bring out the Palamas and Marines.
