

Twelve Titles To Be Swum

A full dozen of swimming championships will be up for competition in the Women's swimming meet being staged by the Women's Auxiliary of the O. C. C. and the Palama girls, on May 25-26.

The drafters of the program have assigned a total of 12 tank championships for the meet which is being staged jointly by the Women's Auxiliary of the Outrigger Canoe club and the Palama Settlement.

For May 24, which is trial night, there are two island title events, namely, the women's plunge and the 800 yards for men.

For May 25 there are six, namely, 40 yards women's backstroke, men's high diving, 220 yards men's open, men's plunge, 50 yards women's breaststroke and 200 yards men's club relay.

For May 26 there are four: 100 yards men's breaststroke, 100 yards women's open, 100 yards men's backstroke and 200 yards women's club relay.
