SIX TEAMS SURE AND MAYBE MORE FOR VOLLEYBALL

Wallace Saffery Says That If Hui Nalus Enter, the League Will Have Seven

The Hawaiian A. A. U. Volleyball league will open its season next Monday night with a doubleheader at the Palama Settlement gymnasium. Six teams are assured for the league and perhaps there will be seven.

"We are waiting for a report from the Hui Nalu. They may come in and if they do it will make seven teams," said Wallace Saffery, president of the league, this morning.

The six teams which have entered are Outrigger Canoe Club, Palama, All-Around Chinese, University of Hawaii, Columbus Club and the Y-A team, which is the Y. M. C. A. and Ad Club team.

There will be doubleheaders three nights a week. On Monday and Saturday nights the teams will play at Palama, but on Wednesday nights the teams will play at the Central Y. M. C. A.
