ESTELLE CASSIDY SETS SWIM MARKS

Estelle Cassidy, former Outrigger Canoe Club swimmer, who is attending the National Park seminary at Washington, D. C., recently took part in an inter-class meet at the school.

Superiority of island swimmers over average mainland performers was evidenced by the fact that she broke two of the school records, tied one and won five out of seven events.