OUTRIGGER CLUB'S FAIR GETS CROWD; CUTS DOWN DEFICIT

From noon to midnight Saturday the Outrigger Canoe club grounds were thronged with those who had come to help make the fair and dance a success, and when "Dude" Miller's orchestra played "Aloha Oe" and receipts were counted the club was approximately $700 to the good. This is not as much as had been hoped for, but it will go toward making up the deficit which will face the club at the end of the fiscal year.

The board of governors are satisfied that it was a success, for the goal of $1000 gross receipts was not only reached, but passed. Expenses, however, will cut the receipts down somewhat.

The fair brought in about $500, the dance a similar amount and the canoes and surfboards about $75. In the fair, the cake booth brought about $120, the sandwich booth about $50, the ice cream booth about $35, the salad booth about $30, the pie booth $30, the tea and coffee booth $30, the novelty booth $20, the Hawaiian booth $25, and the lemonade booth $20.

Among the gifts received for the fair were 90 cakes, 80 pies, 90 dozen lemons, 30 quarts of beans, 30 loaves of bread and other contributions.

Among the firms which donated food were American Factors, Ltd., Theo. H. Davies & Co. C. J. Day & Co., Metropolitan Meat Market, Levy Co., May & Co. and Love's Biscuit & Bread Co. There were more than 300 helpers at the fair and the turnout of patrons was also excellent. The canoes did a good business and the dance in the evening was well attended.

The board of directors issued a statement this morning through Henry A. Asch, thanking the members, the public and the newspapers for making the fair a success.
