WILL BE KEEN IN ALL SWIMS

Helen Sanborn Will Carry Kauai Colors But Events Have Not Been Selected

Half Century Expected To Be Thriller Between Two Outrigger Club Swimmers

The complete program for the fifth annual Hawaiian swimming meet for women was issued this morning and shows an exceptionally long entry. Friday and Saturday nights are the main dates but at the trials Thursday night there will be a number of regular events as well. Punahou tank is the scene of the meet.

Helen Sanborn will represent Kauai in the meet, but the events in which she will swim have not been selected. Maui and Hawaii will also be represented by girl swimmers.

The race which is expected to be the feature of the meet is the 50 yards for women when Marie Wehenka and Lillie Bowmar, Outrigger girls, are expected to fight it out for island supremacy.
