What They Had To Say After Their Battles

NEW YORK, May 23.—The four principals in the New York Milk Fund show fistic extravaganza after their bouts here this afternoon, made the following statements on May 12.

JESS WILLARD—I've never been happier in my life. No. I don't think I was happier when I won the world's title by licking Jack Johnson eight years ago. Boy! There's great satisfaction in proving I could "come back!"

FLOYD JOHNSON—Jess Willard is a wonder. That's all I have to say about that fellow. I gave him all I had, but he was too strong and rugged.

LUIS FIRPO—McAuliffe was pretty clever but when I put over my right—well, you saw what happened. Every fight brings me nearer my aim—to meet Jack Dempsey and be world's champion.

JACK McAULIFFE, 2ND—I figured I had the punch to bring down Firpo. I went out to land it, but was unfortunate enough to get clipped heavily. It was a terrible blow Firpo landed. I'm sincerely sorry for all the boys who bet on me.

JUNIOR LEAGUE

The Junior A. A. U. Volleyball league will open its session tomorrow night at the Nuuanu "Y" with Outriggers playing Kaimuki and A. C. A. meeting Columbus club.

MAT CARD

Arrangements have been made by which Benn Pinn and Kinjo Ikeda will wrestle at the Asahi theater next Saturday night. Leo Poaha and Ayers of the Seattle will be the features in the semi-final event.
