SWIMMING SPLASHES

There has been a lot of talk about the swimmers going to Maui for a meet in July but George "Dad" Center says no.

W. W. "Wild Bill" Harris, Outrigger swimmer, who married an Australian girl on his tour of the Antipodes, will reside in Manila. A card has been received from him to that effect.

The three American mermaids, who defied the A. A. U. and went to England, did not have the courage of their convictions for they have returned to New York without swimming a stroke.

There is a report current that Duke Kahanamoku is now finishing a picture and will come back to Honolulu early in the fall.

Sam Kahanamoku and Pua Kealoha are planning on a trip to the mainland within a short time.

There has been good surf running at Waikiki for the past few days and many of the old timers are out.

Harry Steiner, one of the surfing boys of 15 years ago, appeared in the big surf yesterday to show the youngsters how to ride 'em!

There is talk about pulling off a swimming meet in the harbor in September and inviting Duke Kahanamoku.

Schofield swimmers are training consistently for a possible meet in the fall an dwill then enter the open events.

Between teaching classes at the "Y" and training service swimmers, Coach Luther Hough is one busy man.

COMMERCIAL GOLF TOURNEY COMING

The commercial tennis tourney is nearing its close and so now a commercial golf tourney is being organized and eight business houses have already signified their intention of going in.

The firms which plan to enter are: Hawaiian Trust, Bank of Hawaii, Bishop Trust, Allen & Robinson, von Hamm-Young, American Factors, Honolulu Paper Co., Standard Oil.

SUNDAY GAMES

The Braves will meet the All-Around Chinese in the first game of a doubleheader to be played at Mollilli field Sunday afternoon. The second game will be between the Asahis and the All-Chinese.

EN SUE TO UMPIRE KAIULANI-AIEA GAME TOMORROW P. M.

Charlie En Sue, one of the greatest baseball players Hawaii has ever produced and