A. A. U. NOTES

Big turnout for the annual meeting of the Hawaiian A. A. U. at the chamber of commerce rooms last night.

Fourteen organizations were represented at the meeting last evening.

George ("Dad") Center gave a short speech as the president's report for the year.

Present at the meeting last night included G. D. Center, Outrigger Canoe Club; C. Chang, A. C. A.; Victor Ligda, Maui Athletic Club; A. Guerrero, Kalimuki Athletic Club; W. Saffery, Palama; B. Robbins, Y. M. C. A.; W. C. Meinecke, Hilo Basketball League; D. L. Conkling, Hui Makani; T. Los Banas, Rizal Athletic Association; D. Forbes, University of Hawaii; P. Rice, Kauai Athletic Club; W. T. Rawlins, Hui Nalu; Nina J. Adams, Women's Auxiliary.

The basketball committee's report for the year was made by W. Meinecke, who said plans for the next year included a junior league.

Wallace Saffery reported on volleyball and suggested an earlier season for the game.

The finance committee reported assets on hand amounting to $1040, of which $655 is cash.

Victor Ligda reported on the football situation, especially with regard to professionalism.

The football committee brought out the need of a gridiron stadium to seat 30,000 fans.

The written report of the swimming committee was mislaid, so D. L. Conkling made a verbal report.

The registration committee reported 630 applications during the past year.

All amateur athletic cards fall due on October 1.

E. Fullard-Leo was elected handicapper for the Hawaiian A. A. U.

The registration committee chosen at the meeting last night was Messrs. Ligda, Meinecke and Saffery.

Appointments of standing committees was left over until the next meeting.

Kamehameha schools plan to drop out of the Hawaiian A. A. U., according to report made last night.

The treasurer's report was received and referred to the finance committee. The balance was $1 out and will be straightened.

The swimming committee was appointed, to include W. T. Rawlins, chairman; George D. Center, Victor Ligda, Wallace Saffery, Mrs. E. Fullard-Leo, Roy Vitousek, an army man and a navy man.

There will be a meeting of the swimming committee in the office of the chairman in the Bank of Hawaii building Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Harold Kruger is on his way here to swim in the October meet, according to a report made last night by Rawlins.

The central "Y" will enter its own developed athletes under its own colors in the future but will not draw on other clubs.

The association went on record with a standing vote of thanks to express its appreciation of the work done in the past three years by George ("Dad") Center, retiring president.