ELEANOR BICKERTON WINS JUNIOR EVENT

By a margin of one stroke, Eleanor Bickerton, 12 years old, won the junior mermaid championship of the Outrigger Canoe club for 100 yards straightaway in Honolulu harbor Thursday afternoon. Her time was 1:18 flat. Pauline Laird was second and Christine Laird was third. Others in the race were Helen Ellis, Marjory Atherton and Elizabeth Quinn.

Eleanor's victory entitles her to have her name engraved on the cup which was put up by the New Zealanders, Gwitha Shand, Pauline Hoeft and Mrs. A. Brown, when they were here last fall.

The cup conditions called for 100 yards straightaway which is the reason that the event was staged this week and not at the meet next week when the races will all be over a 50-meter course.
