Are You Ready? On Your Marks! Bang!

Lillie Bowmer, Outrigger Canoe Club Swimmer, Holder of Women's World Record for Fifty Yards, Who Races In Meet Next Week

JAY'S JABS

ng through a file of baseball material the the following story came to light, and it nny enough to pass it on; more so, since it been in print out here before, the memory st inhabitant included.

ack in the days of long ago, when Mike me manager of the Tacoma team in training ia, he thought he would get before the base- So he announced that he would umpire an eries between Sacramento and the Chicago then training on the coast.

ento was batting. The first man up hit top.

like a shot out of a bottle of the real stuff. motions of fielding and throwing it to first, ss Leader playing first base, stretched out naking the catch.

y.

terfielder was madly chasing the ball.

* * *

ilili field last Saturday two football fans heard discussing some of the University of layers. The second game had just com- nd the remark of one of these players was timely thing that could possibly have been It came just about the time of the touch- en the University had the ball and was the Army near the 20 or 30 yards line, in y of the skin diamond of the football field. an, evidently a malihini, asked the other fan, a local resident of several seasons, which Lionel "Dusky" Brash, generally regraded as st broken-field runner ever developed in the ted out the star.

Dusky'?" was the malihini's next question. hite," answered the older fan. "Just watch it the army line on an off-tackle play that t. The crash raised a thick brown cloud of nerged Brash, carrying the ball.

t see him for dusk, and that's why they call glib kamaaina, as Brash ran easily across

* * *

EN, who is always referred to as "Van," om Long Beach a few weeks ago with rather al estate story. He said that real estate in Southern California has reached heights never dreamed of before, and that anybody money can make money by simply buying ng it a short time and asking an increase ack up his declaration, he told of an incident. wanted a piece of land in a certain section. Long Beach but listed as suburban real told his agent to offer $700 a front foot agent phoned up the owner, who declared $800 a foot. The agent was unable to get ith his man that night, but got him the next d told him.

offer him $750 a foot, but not a cent more." e man after the land.

ent went out to the land-owner. He stated ng, the owner said:

fooling about that $800-a-foot business. am holding out for $1000," said Mr. Owner. s client the new turn of affairs.

l offer him $975 a foot. That's my bedrock

s? What will I do?" asked the agent. nothing doing," replied the client. wallowed his pride and went out to see the

to offer $975 and not a cent more," he told

ALL CLUBS WELL REPRESENTED IN COMING TOURNEY

Cream of Talent in Islands Entered For Olympic Meet , In Harbor October 11-13

Every club is well represented in the entry lists which closed at noon yesterday for the Hawaiian A. A. U. Olympic swimming meet scheduled October 11 and 13 in Honolulu harbor.

The entries by clubs are as follows:

Entries

Outrigger—Marjory Atherton, Eleanor Bickerton, Frances Bickerton, Lillie Bowmer, Helen Ellis, Henrietta Kishler, Maude Kishler, Christine Laird, Pauline Laird, Janice Lovett, Helen Moses, Elizabeth Quinn, Christine Smoot, Dorothy Waters and Mariechen Wehselau, Billy Allen, Bouldin Burbank, Clarke Chapin, Manley F. Hammond, Gay Harris, Alfred W. Hess, K. Makinney, A. E. Minvielle, Jr., Fred Reeder, Kenneth Ross, Chester Sims, John Trotter, Jeff Wilcox, Benton Wood and Arthur Woodbury.

Hui Nalu—William Hollinger, Louis Kahanamoku, Sam Kahanamoku, George Kane, Herman Kealoha, Pua Kealoha and Ah Kong Pang.

Hui Makani—Pearl Buffum, Marie K. Lane, Hattie Purdy, Rose Reugg, W. N. Bergin, Ah Miu Chun, Anthony Chun, Robert Darnell, Anson De Rego, William Eames, James L. Foley, Antone Gomes, G. S. Harris, Jr., Samson Hyun, Hiram Kaakua, Keili Kanoa, James Kealiikia, Warren Kealoha, W. D. Kirschbaum, Clarence Lane, Henry Luning, David Pokipala, Charles Pung, Joseph Pung, Henry W. Smith, Joseph Sweeney and Shirley A. Wheelden.

Y. M. C. A.—Ralph Alexander, E. N. Butler, Harold Button, Morris Chang, Emperor Hanapi, James Kaonohi, George H. Kellerman, Christopher Kong, George K. Lee, William Maket, Clarence Miller, Charles Robbins, Ak Soo Song and Kwong Tom.

Unattached—Hugo Anderson, Carl