MEET WAS A RECORD CONCLAVE

Summaries Show That The Events Were All-Star Affairs

THAT the Honolulu Harbor Meet, concluded last night, was in reality a record affair is shown by the summaries for three nights of the competition. The presence of Gertrude Ederle, and her wonderful swimming, made the meet a sensational one, but the all around performances of less widely heralded athletes were the really remarkable features. These are the summaries for the three nights, beginning with the first night:
