PRIZES GIVEN TO SURF SWIMMERS

Outrigger Club Stages Dance and James Presents Trophies

Presentation of prizes won in the Thanksgiving Day surf swim took place last night at the Outrigger Canoe club dance. President C. C. James spoke and presented the trophies.

Chester Sims was given the Theo. H. Davies cup for winning the men's swim. E. A. Minvielle and Gay Harris received silver and bronze medals for second and third place.

The Star-Bulletin cup went to Mariechen Wehselau, winner of the women's race. Helen Moses and Janice Lovett received second and third prizes.

Bob Askew got the cup for the men's race over 30 years and A. R. Tullock, who finished second, was given a silver medal.

The Dawkins Benny cup went to Bouldin Burbank, winner of the race for boys under 18 years. Silver and bronze medals went to F. Reeder and H. Wood, who followed him in the race.

In the boys' under 16 years and girls' novice races the winners, K. Makinney and Pauline Laird were given the cup put up by Alexander Hume Ford.

A. Hess and Benton Wood, second and third in the boys' novice race, and Eleanor Bickerton and Christine Laird, second and third in the girls' novice, received medals.

Dancing preceded and followed the presentation of prizes.
