Two Hundred Signed Up For McKinley v. Punahou Swim Affair Next Week

Big Entry List Indicates Interest Shown in Coming Tank Splash: Benefit for the New McKinley Tank Fund

NEARLY 200 entries have signed up for the McKinley-Punahou swimming meet which is to be held at the Elizabeth P. Waterhouse Memorial tank at Punahou next Thursday, Friday and Saturday. It should be the greatest indoor meet held locally, with Hawaii's best talent pitted in the 32 events which are listed for the three nights.

The meet is being held for the benefit of the proposed McKinley High school swimming tank, funds raised going towards that project. Several interscholastic events are on the program, as well as girls' events, in which the University of Hawaii has entered for the first time.
