HAWAIIANS GET PLACE ON ROSS' LIST: PICKS THOSE WHO WILL SWIM

List of Ratings Shows the Local Stars to Be Figured Strong as Olympic Competitors Next Year

By GEORGE F. LINEER
(In the San Francisco Chronicle)

NORMAN ROSS and Ernst Brandsten have compiled a rating for the swimmers that aspire to represent the United States in the Olympiad at Paris next year.

This rating was made after carefully considering the performances of the aspirants for the last year taking into consideration the age of the athlete and whether on the improve or decline.

It is interesting to note that Ross numbers himself among those who will try for the team. In the 1920 Olympiad Ross was the high point man for the American team. This time Ross predicts Weissmuller will succeed him for this honor.

Four divers and three swimmers are rated good enough to make the team from the Pacific Association.

This is the way these experts dope it out, and rate the swimmers:

	Name of Club	Best Time
1	J. Weissmuller, I. A. A. C.	:58 2-5
2	Duke Kahanamoku, I. A. A. C.	1:00
3	Pua Kealoha, Hui Nalu	1:01 3-5
4	D. Jones, C. A. A.	1:02 4-5
5	P. Weissmuller I. A. A. C.	1:02 4-5
6	Sam Kahanamoku Hui Nalu	1:03
7	R. Howell, N. W. U.	1:03
8	H. Kruger, I. A. A. C.	1:03 2-5
9	W. Kealoha, Outrigger	1:03 3-5
10	R. Harrison
11	L. Jelliffe, Yale Uni.
12	J. Roberston, O. C.
13	L. Smith, O. C.
14	Ranger Mills, N. Y. A. C.
15	Adam Smith, Erie

Evidently Ross and Brandsten in placing Sam Kahanamoku, the younger brother of Duke, do not consider the win of Sam over Pua Kealoha in 54 seconds this year as worthy of better rating than sixth.

1	J. Weismuller, I. A. A. C.	5:06 3-5
2	Norman Ross, Unat.	5:14 2-5
3	R. Howell, N. W. U.	5:17
4	F. O'Connor, Stanford	5:18 3-5

12	J. Witt, Redondo
13	T. Blake, L. A. A. C.
14	Adam Smith, Erie
15	C. Goldwater, Unat.

On his performances this year, Jerry "Cottontop" Witt seems to deserve a better place than twelfth, particularly when he holds two wins this year over W. O'Connor, who rates fourth. Unquestionably O'Connor is going much better now than he was when Witt beat him, but Witt's wins were decisive.

200 METERS, BREAST STROKE

1	W. Farley, Minn. Uni.	2:58
2	R. Skelton, I. A. A. C.	3:00
3	C. Fletcher, Stanford	3:04
4	S. Ruddy, C. A. A.
5	J. Howell, O. C.
6	Czerwonsky, Wisconsin University
7	S. Kahanamoku, Hui Nalu
8	J. Egan, Seattle A. C.

The rating of Fletcher above Howell is evidently based on his performances in the south the latter part of this year. Fletcher, however, has never defeated Howell, although the two have met several times.

9	L. Smith, O. C.	2:25 2-5
10	W. Harris, Outrigger	2:18
11	J. Robertson, O. C.	2:26

Here Ross and Brandsten made allowances for three men that have apparently slowed up. The three are Duke Kahanamoku, "Bill" Harris and Ross himself. Perry McGilvary, the wonder man, apparently goes on forever without the mark of time upon him. McGilvary has been swimming nearly 15 years now in championship class.

5	C. Morse, Cleveland	1:48
6	R. Keregis, L. A. A. C.	1:48 2-5
7	W. Hobdy, O. C.

Warner Hobdy has never swam 100 meters, backstroke ,in competition. The placing of Hobdy in this company shows how much is thought of the big Olympic Club boy who is not yet out of high school.
