

Soccer Honors At Stake When Teams Compete

The soccer championship of Honolulu is at stake this afternoon at Makiki field when the Outrigger play the Rangers. The Rangers beat the surfers in the first meeting, the game being played on a wet field. If the Rangers win tomorrow the title is theirs for 1923, but if the Outriggers win the two teams will be tied for honors.

The Marines and the Palamas will play the first game commencing at 2:30 o'clock and the main game will follow the finish of the affair.

The Ranger lineup for the day has been announced as follows:

The Outrigger lineup will be picked from the following:

Goal, Paty and Ricketts; full-backs, McNicoll, Mayall and Bailey; halfbacks, Lee Wald, Andrews, Chillingworth and Parker; forwards, Francis Judd, Ho, Julien Judd, John Morse, Rosemond, Martin and Walker.
