AIL, to A. Philpotts. He booted in the only goal in the Honolulu Soccer association game Saturday at Makiki field when the Rangers beat the Palamas and cinched the soccer championship of Honolulu for the season of 1922. It gave the Rangers the honors by a narrow margin and victory was in doubt until the last half of the battle. Palama put up a hard fight but could not hold back the hard pressing Rangers.

Had the Palamas won the game it would have tied up the race and given the Outriggers another chance at the title. The Rangers had one victory and one tie game over the Outriggers and had to win Saturday to make certain of the honors.

Both teams played a good game.

The Palamas showed a world of improvement and next year can be counted upon as real contenders for the title.

In the other game of the afternoon the Outriggers trimmed the Marines by a score of 3 to 0.

Lineup
