OUTRIGGERS AND COLUMBUS ANNEX IN VOLLEYBALL

Junior Games Prove Highly Interesting With Several Surprises Being Put Out

The Outrigger Juniors won from the A. C. A. outfit last evening at the Palama Settlement gymnasium. The A. C. A.s took the first set easily by 15-7. The second set was a battle of slamming by both teams, but the Outriggers had the edge on the A. C. As and won 15-13. The third and last set went to Outriggers 15-11.

The stars were Karratti, Afong and McGill for the winners while Kau Mung and Crun Yun shone for the losers.

Teams

Outriggers — B. Burbank, H. Afong, L. Smith, Dease, B. Karratti, N. Howell and A. McGill.

A. C. A.—Ah Yuk, You On, Chung Yun, David Lum, Ah Chow, Ah Kee, Kon Mung.

The second game of the evening was another hard one.

The Columbus Welfare team sprang a surprise by beating the Palamas in the first set by 15-2. The Pals seemed to be nervous and unable to cover the ball in many instances. The second set saw the Pals come back strong and win by 15-5. In the third set the Pals beat the Columbus sextet by 15-6.

Teams

Palama—Park, Lee, McColgan, N. Suganuma, Cummins, Akana, T. Hugo.

Columbus—Sam Aina, Frank Anahu, P. Rodrigues, J. Furtado, P. Robero, H. Nobrega, A. Lum.

W. Saffery was referee.

The next games are on Monday, June 4, at Palama at 7:30 p. m., Palama vs. A. C. A., Columbus vs. Kaimuki.