

One of Best Meets the Islands Have Offered Is On Program For Tonight

First Pre-Olympic Swimming Affair at Punahou Offers the Cream of Local Swimmers in Varied Competition

TONIGHT'S swimming meet at Punahou tank, put on under the auspices of the Women's auxiliary of the Outrigger Canoe club, is not only the first step in raising the Olympic team fund for the Hawaiian Islands, but is in fact one of the most excellent offerings ever given the fans of Hawaii.

Events ranging from diving to sprints, and from scratch competition between champions to hard fought events of handicap nature in efforts to establish new records, are all on the list.

In addition to the regular program as announced a week ago, the committee in charge has seen fit to stage the diving events in all classes tonight instead of last night, as was originally planned. This is possible owing to the absence of any trial heats in the racing events which include select and unusually competent entries.

The men's and women's plain high diving will be run off together as the opening event of the program. The women's springboard diving is to take place as the fifth event on the card, while the men's springboard dives will hold twelfth place.

The meet will commence at 7:45 sharp.

Popular prices are in effect for this evening's meet and all arrangements have been made to make this one of the best affairs of its kind, from point of competition, ever seen in the islands.

Additional attractions, in the way of exhibitions and music, will be offered during the intermissions.
