

HUI MAKANI IS WINNER 4-3 IN WATER POLO GO

So evenly matched were the Hui Makani and Hui Nalu water polo teams last night that it required overtime play to decide the battle at Punahou tank, the final result being a 4-3 victory for the Hui Makani. A large crowd of fans turned out to see the affair, which was hard fought from start to finish. The score at the end of the regular time was 3-3.

The Hui Nalus had Pua Kealoha, Sam Kahanamoku, Joe Guerrero, David Kahanamoku, Louis Kahanamoku, George Harris, "Tough Bill" Keaweamahi, and in the second half Walter Grace and Bill Hollinger.

The Hui Makanis had Warren Kealoha, Imi Pung, George Crozier, Isaac Kaakimaka, Noah Kalama, Clarence Lane, Henry Luning and W. Kaakua.

Walter Grace refereed in the first half and David Kahanamoku in the second half.

The second game of the water polo series is scheduled tomorrow night, with the Hui Nalus meeting the Outriggers. The Outriggers have Tom Muirhead, Kenneth Ross, Gay Harris, Walter Muirhead, A. E. Minvielle, Johnny Morse and T. Searle. Hui Makani meets Outriggers Thursday night.