

HUI NALUS WIN FROM SURFERS IN WATER POLO

It was something of an upset when the Hui Nalus defeated the Outriggers last night in a water polo game at the Punahou tank by a score of 6-2 before a good-sized crowd of fans. The surfers had been heavy favorites.

Pua Kealoha was the star of the evening, making most of the Hui Nalus' goals.

The Hui Nalus had David Kahanamoku, Sam Kahanamoku, Louis Kahanamoku, Joe Gurrerro, Charles Pung, George Harris and Pua Kealoha.

The Outriggers had Kenneth Ross, Gay Harris, Johnny Morse, Theodore Searle, K. Wall, Walter Muirhead and Tom Muirhead.

Norman Ross played one-half of the game with one team and half with the other.

Walter Grace of the Hui Nalus refereed the match.

Tonight at 7:30 o'clock at the Punahou tank the Outriggers will play the Hui Makanis, who defeated the Hui Nalus early this week.
