

HAWAII'S SWIM TEAM GETS BIG ALOHA AT SHIP

Seven Members of Squad, Manager and Coach Off With Hopes of Victory

With the burden of Hawaii's hopes of victory upon their shoulders in the form of countless multi-colored leis, seven members of the Hawaiian swimming team, headed by their manager and coach sailed today on the Matsonia for mainland United States, the Olympic Games in Paris, France, being their ultimate goal.

Mariechen Wehselau, the only girl member of the Hawaiian Olympic team, and Mrs. E. Fullard-Leo, chaperon, remained behind, but will sail later. Executive matters in connection with the Hawaiian A. A. U. and slight illness of her young son caused Mrs. Fullard-Leo to postpone her departure.

Those who sailed this morning were Warren Kealoha, Pua Kealoha, Sam Kahanamoku, Bill Kirschbaum, Henry Luning, Gay Harris, Charles Pung, D. L. Conkling, manager, and Harvey Chilton, coach. The latter's trip was made possible with

(Continued on Page 2.)