

OUTRIGGER FAIR

ADMISSION FREE

Dancing, Good Music, Canoe
Surfing and Sale of Home-Cooked Goods

At a meeting of the board of directors of the Outrigger Canoe Club last night, it was decided to charge no admission to the grounds Saturday, May 17, but to depend upon the sale of dance tickets and home-cooked delicacies to provide funds to carry the club through the fiscal year.

Many people who enjoy the beach and privileges of the club do not know that the cost of running the club is close to $1000 a month and that the membership dues do not entirely cover this expense. In order to make up the difference, the club holds an annual fair in May.

Through the courtesy of the Woman's Auxiliary, the entire grounds have been placed in the hands of the fair committee and they will be closed for the usual club activities but will be open to the public during the day for fair purposes.

Tables will be conveniently placed on the cool lanai under the hau tree, and luncheon will be served cafeteria style from 11:30 to 2 p. m. The band will give a concert in the afternoon from 2 to 4 p. m., and all the outrigger canoes will be at the disposal of surfing parties. Supper will be served from 5:30 to 7 p. m. A moonlight dance in the pavilion will be the evening entertainment.
