

POPULAR YOUNG MAN CELEBRATING 21ST BIRTHDAY

A. E. Minvielle, Jr., becomes a voter today, having reached the age of 21. Now a junior at the University of Hawaii, he will leave this summer as part of the university R. O. T. C. detachment for Camp Lewis, Wash., for a period of training. In honor of his birthday today, his father is giving a luau at their home at 1641 Young street, which will be attended by many of the young man's classmates. Young Minvielle, who was born at Olaa, Hawaii, June 1, 1903, is a well-known swimmer and handler of surfboards and outrigger canoes, and is also a violinist.
