

---

Mariechen Wehselau, the world's champion swimmer, who has arrived in the United States from Honolulu, is 18 years old and has held all the Hawaiian swimming records for women since her fourteenth year.