

First Mixed Swim Is On Tap Saturday

For the first time in the history of aquatics, a mixed swimming race between champions of both sexes will feature the gala water meet which will be held Saturday afternoon in the Olympic Pool at Long Beach, for the benefit of the Olympic Fund. America's complete Olympic team of swimmers and divers will compete.

The mixed relay will be between the East and the West. It is likely the Misses Gertrude Ederle and Helen Wainwright will be on the Eastern team. The Western team will probably consist of Johnny Weissmuller and Duke Kahanamoku and the Misses Mariechen Wehselau and Ethel Lackie.

Miss Alleen Riggin, the Olympic champion, will appear in the fancy diving event.
