

nely, Indianapolis. The alternate in this event is Josephine McKim of Panama Canal Zone.

Besides Ederle in the 400-meters the selections are Helen Wainwright and Martha Norelius, both of New York, Margaret Ravior of Philadelphia is the alternate.

Frances Cowell Schroth of San Francisco, was picked for the 100 meters backstroke and so was Sybil Bauer of Chicago and Doris O'Mara of New York.

Dirty work at the crossroads, Jack Dalton! The Federals are reported to have used a couple of "ringers" to beat the Judiciary team in the Government Baseball league Saturday.

And now the sun is shining. . . .
All of Hawaiian athletes who participated in the Eastern Olympic trials got away for Paris, France, Monday on the S. S. America.

Even Gay Harris is reported in D. L. Conkling's wire to be on the team and so too is David Kahana-moku, trainer for the islanders.

The long worry is over for those who have worked so hard to get the island athletes the trip. The worry began with the raising of the funds, then came the Western trials, then the Eastern trials and then getting by the selection committee and finally getting them on board the S. S. America. But now they are on board bound across "the big pond," for the goal which lures athletes the world over, the Olympic games.

It's up to them to make good the work done by those who got them "across."
