

SENIOR VOLLEYBALL TITLE GO TOMORROW

The A. A. U. Volleyball championship game will be played at the Central "Y" tomorrow night between Palama and the Outriggers.

The Pals won the championship last year, but the Outriggers are after it red-hot this year. It will be a good game when these two teams meet. There are no charges for admission and a good attendance is expected. Both teams have won four games each with no defeat.

The first game of the evening will be between the U. of H. and Central "Y."
