BIG WAD PAID FOR THREE SOCCERITES

LONDON, May 7.—All past records for prices paid to secure the services of star soccer players have easily been smashed by the Everton club of the English league, which this season obtained three crack men for $62,500—David Reid from the Distillery club of the Belfast league for $22,500, J. Facklerley from Sheffield United and W. Davies, the Welsh International, for $20,000 each.

The Bolton Wanderers' club received a record sum from gate receipts this season, the large amount of $212,500 being taken at the turfstiles. The profit resulted in only $3,360 being netted, players' salaries, benefits and transfer fees using up more than half the income.
