After HGEA Prez David Trask remarked that he and his union would be happy to give Mayor Fasi a fight if he wanted one (regarding his no-guns-for-Police-on-campus decree), the Mayor smiled: "The last time Trask threatened to do fist battle with me was at the Maui War Memorial in 1962. I told him I would be waiting for him outside in front of the building. I waited an hour, then asked someone where he was. I was told Trask left by the back door" . . .
