

AUG. 31 1970

Waikiki Surf wins ocean canoe race

By KEN KOBAYASHI
Advertiser Sports Writer

According to an ancient, durable proverb, "as the sea shall giveth, she shall taketh." And yesterday, she was mostly taking.

Without asking, her five to seven foot swells claimed four canoes and two escort vessels, swamping them in yesterday's third annual Duke Kahanamoku Lanikai to Waikiki Canoe Race.

EVEN THE WINNER, Waikiki Surf Club, was hampered by the winds and waves.

"We bailed out just as much as the other canoes," said Jeff Chee, the winning coach. "We took in a lot of water."

He called the turn around Makapuu Point even worse than the Molokai Channel, which he has crossed nine times.

Like many observers, he said yesterday was the roughest in the Duke's three years.

CHEE'S Koa canoe, the 40-foot Malia, finished the 23-mile route in 3:36. Waikiki's second team followed eight minutes later, making it a double sweep for the club. Arch rival Outrigger came in third, at 3:46.

Lani Kai placed fourth, then Outrigger II, Lani Kai II, Kai Oni and Healani. Four canoes from Healani, Kailua Hawaiian Civic, Kai Oni and Leeward Kai failed to finish.

Chee, veteran of 15 years with a paddle, dubbed experience as the deciding factor out on the water.

"THERE'S NO such thing as strategy," he said. "To me, what you need is experience."

Joe Gilman, at 38 the strongest member of Chee's team with 21 years of paddling, was what the coach meant.

And besides Gilman, Chee and the seven other paddlers earlier this month paddled from Hawaii to Oahu, tracing an old King Kamehameha route.

In addition to more experience, the milestone event also gave his men training, Chee said.

The seven others on the Malia were Nappy Napoleon, Randy Chun, Andy Miller, Mike Tongg, Aaron Young and Richard Henning.

The race was sponsored by the Lanikai Canoe Club and the Hawaiian Canoe Racing Association. George Lipp was the overall chairman and Chris Faria was racing chairman.

The victory was Waikiki's second straight. Outrigger won the opening Duke race in 1968.

SEP 7 1970

M. B. Henshaw Dies at 80

Marshall Brooke Henshaw, 80, an attorney and business and community leader, died yesterday in St. Francis Hospital.

Known as Kelly, Mr. Henshaw was a familiar figure in downtown Honolulu and at the Outrigger Canoe Club, where he swam daily until he became ill two years ago.

He lived at 71-D Country Club Road, Nuuanu, with his wife, Rose. Other survivors include a son, George H. (Buck) Henshaw of Beverly Hills, Calif., and Honolulu; a daughter, Mrs. Brewster (Babbie) B. Broadwell of Pasadena, Calif.; a granddaughter, Mrs. W. Robert Keen, in Connecticut; two great-grandchildren; and a sister, Mrs. Albert K. B. Lyman of Walnut Creek, Calif.

Private services are pending. The family requests that in lieu of flowers, contributions in memory of Mr. Henshaw be made to Kauikoolani Children's Hospital, St. Francis Hospital or to the donor's favorite charity.

MR. HENSHAW was born Nov. 24, 1889, in Downey, Calif. He was graduated from Stanford University in 1912.

Arriving in Honolulu on the

Marshall B. Henshaw

old Matson liner Wilhelmina in 1913, he worked briefly in the insurance department of H. Hackfeld and Co. He then returned to California to earn his law degree, was admitted to the California bar in 1916, and came back to Honolulu to work with the law firm of Holmes and Olson.

With the entry of the United States into World War I, Mr. Henshaw entered the Army, rising to captain in the infantry.

In 1919, he joined briefly the law firm of Robertson and Olson. Later that year he began a 17-year association with Bishop Trust Co., serving as a trust officer, treasurer, director and a vice president.

After several years as president of Hawaiian Properties, Ltd., Mr. Henshaw again turned to the practice of law in 1937, joined by a former Stanford classmate, William R. Ouderkirck.

IN ADDITION, he became president of the old Home Savings and Loan Association.

In 1953, Mr. Henshaw formed the law firm of Henshaw, Conroy and Hamilton, and was senior partner until his death.

From 1929 to 1931 he was chairman of the Board of Prison Supervisors. He also served for 10 years, until 1959, on the Territorial Harbor Board. Mr. Henshaw was associated, too, with the Blood Bank of Hawaii. He was a member of the National Loyalty Review Board and an officer and trustee of Kauikoolani Children's Hospital, and a former director of the Medical Center.

He was a member of the Hawaii Bar Association, Oahu Country Club, Outrigger Canoe Club and a charter member of Mid-Pacific Country Club.

SEP. 9 1970

Henshaw services will be private

Private funeral services are pending for Marshall Brooke Henshaw, 80, of 71-D Country Club Road, who died Sunday. He was senior partner of the law firm of Henshaw, Conroy & Hamilton, which he formed in 1953.

He held memberships in the Hawaii Bar Association, Oahu

Country Club, Outrigger Canoe Club and was a charter member of Mid-Pacific Country Club. He had been ill for the past two years.

He is survived by his wife, Rose; son, George H. (Buck) Henshaw; daughter, Mrs. Brewster B. Broadwell; sister, Mrs. Albert K.B. Lyman; granddaughter, Mrs. W. Robert Keen, and two great-grandchildren.

The family requests that in lieu of flowers, contributions in his memory may be made to Children's Hospital or St. Francis Hospital or the donor's favorite charity.

Mr. Henshaw

SEP. 14 1970

premiere parties

The "Tora! Tora! Tora!" premiere in Hawaii Sept. 23 will bring in some big names. Parties are already being planned, including a luncheon Mrs. Gail Wayne will give at the Outrigger Canoe Club Sept. 22. Guests of honor are Mrs. Robert Wagner, Mrs. Leon Ames, Mrs. Edward G. Robinson, Mrs. Chuck Connors (Kamala Devi), Mrs. William Howard (Dorothy Lamour) and Mrs. Keith Andes.

A pre-premiere cocktail party for the stars and their guests will be given by Mrs. Michael Forman in the new rooftop penthouses at the Reef Hotel.

Mrs. Wayne and Mrs.

John Barkhorn will be co-hostesses with Ron Crowe at an after-theatre party in the Barkhorns' Colony Surf Penthouse.

And speaking of theater Baron Dieter Von Stein, operational head of Orbi S. A., the Forman theater properties in Europe, arrived last week to catch the opening of the Don Ho Show at the Polynesian Palace in the Reef Towers.

SEP 14 1970

THE Club Woman

Lawyers' Wives

Dr. James Dator will tell Lawyers' Wives Club members why "The Future Isn't What it Used to Be," at 9:30 a.m. Thursday at the Outrigger Canoe Club.

Dator is professor of political science at the University of Hawaii, where he teaches a course in futuristics.

Anyone interested in attending may call Mrs. Roy Takeyama at 373-1961 for reservations. There will be no charge.

SEP 18 1970

3 Isle Volleyers in World Tourney

Tony Crabb and Dodge Parker, two members of Outrigger Canoe Club's volleyball team, will be on the United States Men's team competing in the World Volleyball championships in Bulgaria.

Beth Hollinger McLaughlin, wife of OCC player Paul, is competing on the women's team.

SEP 20 1970

U.S. spike team to compete today

Tony Crabb and Dodge Parker of the Outrigger Canoe Club are among the United States Volleyball players in Bulgaria today for the opening of the World Volleyball Championships.

Hawaii's Beth Hollinger McLaughlin is a member of the women's team that will also meet Brazil, West Germany and Czechoslovakia in the international competition.

SEP 24 1970

SOME 1,500 people are expected at the topping off party for the Sheraton-Waikiki tomorrow. Included in the gourmet buffet are 18 suckling pigs, and there'll be a huge ice replica of the mammoth new hotel . . . Standing under the portecochere of the Royal Hawaiian yesterday morning, waiting for a tour bus, was Keith Andes and his wife. They were going to visit Pearl Harbor and see the Arizona Memorial.

Though Andes plays a major role in "Tora! Tora! Tora!" he'd never laid eyes on Pearl Harbor before yesterday . . . The Sunspots are now eight strong and in a kind of Blood, Sweat & Tears bag at the C'est Si Bon showroom of the Pagoda Hotel. The lone gal in the group — Sandra Santos — is also the only member from Honolulu — most hail from the Philippines . . . Two Outrigger Canoe Club volleyball players, Tony Crabb and Dodge Parker, in Bulgaria as members of the U.S. team in the world championships. Tony hopes to offer the opposing teams stuffed Crabb as a steady diet . . . Despite the fact that hotel business is better than everyone feared it would be at this time of year, one new Neighbor Island hotel had not a single guest one night last week.

Sandra