McKinley reunion

A reunion of McKinley High School class of 1936 will be held Saturday at Hilton Hawaiian Village Long House. No-host cocktails will be served at 6 p.m. followed by dinner, talent show and community singing.

For information call Duke Cho Choy, 262-6961 or 988-4445.

Vassar Club

The Hawaii Vassar Club will hold its annual luncheon meeting Tuesday at 11:30 a.m. at the Outrigger Canoe Club.

All visiting alumnae are welcome to attend. Reservations may be made with Mrs. Philip R. Hester, 734-3355.

Hospital Auxiliary

The Hawaii State Hospital Auxiliary and the Mental Health Association of Hawaii are co-sponsoring an art show, "Windows of the Mind III" this week during regular shopping hours at Ala Moana Center.

The show, to be seen in the lanai on the lower level near the escalator, is made up of art work done by patients at the hospital, who were taught by members of the auxiliary in the hospital art therapy program.

It's Happening This Weekend

Do it.

—Attend the Hawaii Special Olympics, track and swimming competition for retarded children.

And this week's E.W.M.W.T.M.S.D.G.L.O.* is:

—The Santacruzán, a May flower festival staged by the Filipinos of Waianae at 6 p.m. tomorrow at Waianae Park.

Tonight

HAWAII SPECIAL OLYMPICS: Flag-raising ceremonies, a torch lighting parade, a mile run and baseball throwing events among others. Beginning at 6:30 at Cooke Field on the University of Hawaii campus.

ON STAGE: "Plaza Suite." The opening of the Honolulu Community Theater production of a comedy about three things that take place consecutively in a suite at the posh Plaza Hotel in New York City — a wedding anniversary celebration, an intended seduction after 15 years postponement, and a bride balking at the last minute. The Broadway reviewers thought the play was very funny—and so it ran for more than 1,000 performances. At 8:30 at Ruger Theater.

"What the Butler Saw." An oddly funny play about odd people by an odd playwright whose name, oddly, I can't remember and haven't time to look up. An Oumansky Magic Ring Theater production. At 8:30 on the Terrace Lanai at the Hilton Hawaiian Village.

"Dracula!" Satire, songs and blood-sucking jazzed up and contempered (that's a word because I said it's a word). By the Hawaii Performing Arts Co. at 8 p.m. in the Attic Theater at 68 Pauahi St.

"Waltz of the Toreadors." A French farce by Jean Anouilh. By the Windward Theater Guild. At 8 in the Kailua Elementary School Auditorium.

Tomorrow

MODEL AIRPLANE CONTEST: If you are one of the more than 1,000 kids who have built one of these Delta Dart rubber-band powered wonders—or want to see 'em fly—be at Bloch Arena at Pearl Harbor. But you had better phone before going because nobody has told us when.

HAWAII SPECIAL OLYMPICS: Track and swimming events and presentation of awards. From 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. at Cooke Field on the UH campus.

ADULT ARTS AND CRAFTS SHOW: From 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. at Ala Wai Playground. Free.

ROSE GARDEN OPEN HOUSE: From 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. at the Queen Kapiolani Rose Garden at the corner of Paki and Monsarrat avenues. Free.

CANOE RACE AND WATER SAFETY DEMONSTRATION: Three crews of six men each. Each with a steersman from the Hui Nalu Canoe Club so the peripatetic paddlers—who got lost last year—won't go astray again. Also surfing and water skiing demonstrations. From 9 to noon. The starting line is at the Outrigger Canoe Club.

HAWAIIAN QUILT FESTIVAL: Quilts of 25 different patterns will be on display at the Waianae Library.
