

HAWAII CLIPPING SERVICE
P.O. Box 2033 - Honolulu, Hawaii
PHONE: 734-8124
Victoria Custer Elaine Stroup
HONOLULU STAR BULLETIN
AND ADVERTISER
DEC 1 4 1980

MAHALO

WE COULDN'T HAVE DONE IT WITHOUT YOU!

Our heartfelt thanks to the many, many people and organizations who volunteered their time and effort to make last Sunday's eighth annual Honolulu Marathon the best ever. This is truly a community event, put on by the community for the community. So many people are involved in putting on the marathon that it would be impossible to list them all, but we know you all and want you to know how much your help means to us and to the runners. Our very special aloha goes to our stalwart colleagues, the Ala Moana Jaycees and the following very special folks who helped beyond the call of duty.

City and County of Honolulu, especially the Dept. of Parks and Recreation
Aisen Shiatsu School, Fumehiko Imai
Company C, 84th Engineer Brigade, Schofield
Pacific Laundry, Robert Rawson
Coca-Cola Bottling Co., Don Kosup
Mitsuo Funatsu
Sheraton Hotels, Vice President Nick Bahouth
Industry Data Services, Dick Wilke
Gene Johnson, Jean Nitta
Computab
Time-Line Corp., Dick Cowan
Duty Free Shoppers, Ltd., Joe Lyons
Bill Emerson
Bishop Computing
Hawaii Heart Association
Ry-cor Corp.
Koga Engineering
Joyce Uyehara
Ginny and Clarence Hayashi
Maryknoll High School, running faculty and students
American Cancer Society
Omar the Tent Man
Chemi-Lav
Reggie Fields of AA Medical and Party Supplies
Star Markets
Kaimuki Intermediate School Band
Crazy Shirts
Harbors Division, State of Hawaii
Catering Creations
Coppers and Lybrand

First Hawaiian Bank
Hawaii Kai Fun Runners
Kukui Plaza Medical Associates staff
Kim and Casey Tengan
Buck Buchwach
Punkin Burgess
Emergency Amateur Radio Club (EARC)
Army-MARS
Waialae Country Club
University of Hawaii, Hawaii Natural Energy Institute
Congregation of the Holy Trinity Church
Kalaniana'ole Hwy
Honolulu Police Department
Francis Keala, Chief of Police
Paul Phillipson, Motor Vehicle Safety Office
Hawaiian Equipment, Joe Bova
Dept. of Transportation Services, City and County of Honolulu
Budget Rent-A-Car
CJS Architects
Honolulu Medical Group
Sharon Smith
U.S. Marine Band, Pearl Harbor
Times Supermarkets
Savin Copiers, Webco Hawaii
Kaimuki-Waialae YMCA
Kalih, YMCA
Central YMCA
Takashi Shimura
Yuko and Akimasa Sumi

Hawaii Production Center
KKUA Radio
East-West Center
GEBCO of Hawaii
Hawaiian Telephone
Veteran's Electric
Oahu Plumbing
Elsie Wright
Iolani School
Liberty House
Foodland
King's Bakery
U.S. Navy, Pacific Fleet Band
U.S. Marine Corps Drum and Bugle Corps
Marine Corps Salute Battery
Frito-Lay of Hawaii
Merrill Lynch
Diamond Head Lions Club
Outrigger Canoe Club
Kaiser Hospital
Clark-Haton Physical Fitness Center
Nauhius Fitness Center
Hawaiian Electric Co.
Luncheon Optimist Club
Hawaii Kai Lions Club
Straub Clinic and Hospital
Superior Coffee Co.
American Sponge and Chamolis Co.
Wailupe Fire Station and Chief Boniface K. Aiu
Hawaii Air National Guard
International Life Support Ambulance

Heartiest thanks and applause to the wonderful neighbors who live on the 26 miles, 385 yards of the marathon course.

And, most of all, our respect and admiration to the 6,630 runners who finished last Sunday's Honolulu Marathon.

HONOLULU MARATHON ASSOCIATION

Tom Horton
HAWAII CLIPPING SERVICE
P.O. Box 2033 - Honolulu, Hawaii
PHONE: 734-8124
Victoria Custer Elaine Stroup
MANAGEMENT BULLETIN HAWAII

DEC 1980

COCKTAIL NAPKIN READINGS: Now it should be told? When Eaton Square was first put together and restaurant tenants considered, one successful restaurant owner interested in relocating was reportedly high on original list of potential tenants, but certain powers at the top crossed him off because they felt he was, quote, "too old." The too-old operator: Michel Martin, owner of Chez Michel, now at Eaton Square and we should all be as young... Ray Owen at Mid-East Deli whistling a merry tune over his humming new food concession business at Hickam... Something to chew on: At Lahaina Provision Company, nicely-designed seaview restaurant at Hyatt Regency Maui, 60 percent of the lunch customers order from the extensive yogurt bar—although there's an excellent and extensive lunch menu... Ron Weigand, formerly of Grape Escape, now living in Napa trying to cultivate new California career as wine writer-consultant (alas, an overcrowded field)... When C. Arthur Jones, chef consultant for L. J. Minor Corp., was in Hawaii he tried to connect with fellow graduates from Culinary Institute of America, such as Outrigger Canoe Club chef William Teruya and Coco Palms chef Clarence Nishi, among many others... I like versatility, a necessity to survive these inflated days. Stephen Holmes, former Nick's Fish-market asst. mgr. recently named asst. mgr. of Champeaux's, is also owner and craftsman for Anukai Surfboard Co. and good for him... Best one-liner of the month: Steve Spence orders fish and chips at Columbia Inn and waitress asks, "You want French fries with that?"... Best restaurant song-line of the year, country-western of course: "If your lovin' is good and your cookin' ain't greasy, chuck the chuckwagon and we'll ride away." No wonder there's such a turnover in kitchen help.

HAWAII CLIPPING SERVICE
P.O. Box 2033 - Honolulu, Hawaii
PHONE: 734-8124
Victoria Custer Elaine Stroup
HONOLULU STAR BULLETIN

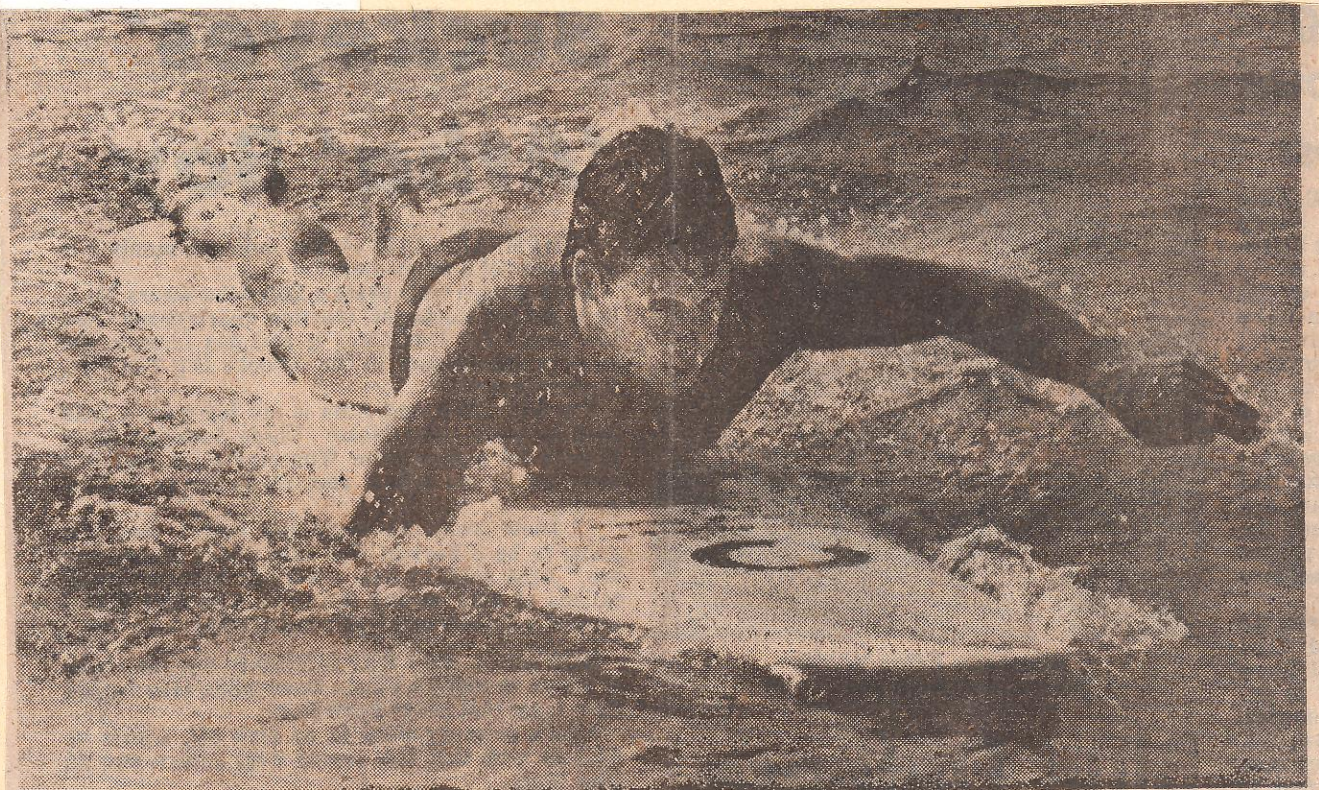

DEC 2 6 1980

ONE PADDLE, TWO PADDLE—Eleven contestants take off yesterday in the annual Christmas Day Diamond Head Surfboard Paddling Championships off Waikiki Beach. The winner after one hour, 20 minutes and 42 seconds was Jimmy Dean of the Outrigger Canoe Club. See story on Page C-3.—Star-Bulletin Photo by Jack Titchen.

HAWAII CLIPPING SERVICE
P.O. Box 2033 - Honolulu, Hawaii
PHONE: 734-8124
Victoria Custer Elaine Stroup
HONOLULU STAR BULLETIN

DEC 2 6 1980

PADDLING CHAMP—Jimmy Dean of Outrigger Canoe Club won overall and open-class honors in the Diamond Head Surfboard Paddling Championships off Waikiki Beach yesterday.—Star-Bulletin Photo by John Titchen.

He's the 'Dean' of Paddling

By Jack Wyatt
Special to the Star-Bulletin

"This race was a gruel—really not a lot of fun," said 19-year-old bikini-clad Kisi Haine after spending a wearying two hours and 21 minutes battling a strong southerly wind and choppy seas in yesterday's 10,000-meter (6.2-mile) Diamond Head Surfboard Paddling Championships off Waikiki.

"My neck is sore, my arms are tired, and I don't care if I see another paddleboard for a while," she added. "The fun of this race was when it was over."
While Haine, a Stanford University sophomore, found yesterday's Christmas race a "humbly" paddle, overall winner and defending champion Jimmy Dean saw the Waikiki Surf Club-sponsored event as all trophies and champagne.

The 30-year-old Dean, who won last year's Diamond Head paddle, turned the rugged course in one hour, 20 minutes and 42 seconds—a minute and 36 seconds faster than second-place finisher Keone Downing.

ELEVEN PADDLERS, competing in two divisions, raced from Waikiki's San Souci Beach to Diamond Head and the wreck buoys and back.

"The conditions were rougher than last year," said Dean, an Outrigger Canoe Club paddler and swimmer. "The toughest part of the race was going out through the surf and the leg coming back to the finish. I've been training for this event for three months, I was up for it."

While Dean topped the overall and Open Class scoring, North Shore life-guard Edmund Pestana, who was the third paddler to finish, won the eight-contestant Downing Class.

"I didn't think the conditions were so rough," said the 25-year-old paddler, who is used to handling the much bigger Sunset Beach waves. "I thought it was pretty neat off Waikiki. But Dean was unbeatable. You could see that he is a fast swimmer by his strong paddling stroke."

In yesterday's closest competition, Downing, who was in third place behind Dean and Pestana on the final leg to the crowded San Souci Beach finish, staged an incredible come-from-behind sprint to nip Pestana by less than two seconds.

"I WAS 15 YARDS behind Edmund turning into the channel," explained Downing. "when I started looking for a better line to come in on, Pestana caught a wave that he rode to the right while I followed the bumps that took me straight in. As we both arrived at the finish, I had the momentum."

Leaders—Open Class: 1. Jimmy Dean 1:20:42; 2. Keone Downing 1:22:18; 3. Matt Kresser 2:00:53. Downing Class: 1. Edmund Pestana 1:22:20; 2. Kainoa Downing 1:27:40; 3. Fred Asmus 1:42:25. First Wahine—Kisi Haine 2:21:11.