

MAR. 14 1969

Temple Emanu-El Fashion Show Set

Advertiser Photos by Charles Okamura

Smashingly simple and simply smashing, Jay Morley for Fern Violet does a long white voile shirt, $40, as a filmy cover-up for bright-printed French bikini. Hibiscus Boutique.

By HOPE DENNIS

Advertiser Fashion Writer

Mary Munds and Joan Chaffee, two young socialites who have joined forces to run the colorful Hibiscus Boutique, believe that fashion is a light-hearted subject that should be taken seriously.

"Fashion is really fun today," said blonde Joan, rippling through a rack of pantsuits in lace-curtain lace. "Women have never had such a lark, especially dressing for some of Hawaii's swinging parties."

"Fashion also has its sensible, good-taste side," said tawny-haired Mary, pulling out a dozen nifty little shaped and seamed go-to-luncheon dresses in yummy spring pastels. "This season's range of moods truly offers something for everyone."

For the ladies and guests of Temple Emanu-El the Hibiscus Boutique plans to run the gamut of today's wide-ranged fashions at a luncheon show Monday, March 24 at the Outrigger Canoe Club.

Reservations may be made by calling luncheon chairman Mrs. Hyman Greenstein, 737-1158 or ticket chairman Mrs. Jerome Tucker, 373-3897.

Proceeds from the benefit luncheon will be used for the Temple's religious school and other Sisterhood projects.

Strawberry pink Italian cotton, crushed and corded in white, provides strong textural interest in Dan Werle's beautifully-cut tunic pantsuit. $195 at Hibiscus Boutique.

MAR. 17 1969

Emanu-El Ladies Sponsoring Benefit

The Outrigger Canoe Club will be the site for Temple Emanu-El Sisterhood's annual fashion show and luncheon Monday, March 24.

Fashions from The Hibiscus Boutique will highlight the event with proceeds used to benefit the Temple's religious school and Sisterhood's other projects.

For reservations, call

Mrs. Hyman Greenstein at 737-1158, Mrs. Jerome Tucker at 373-3897, or Mrs. Norton Langley, 732-1378.

MAR. 26 1969

Dave Donnelly

RUMORS ARE FLYING that Roger Marcotte, a private investigator who was an unsuccessful GOP candidate for City Council, is in line to replace Police Chief Dan Liu. Is possible? John Kernell in the Mayor's office said he hasn't heard word one about it . . . The Mark Waters story will be shown tonight on Channel 11 at 7 p.m. If you miss it, the show (starring Richard Boone) will be repeated Sunday at 9:30 p.m. Smokers, particularly, should watch . . . Kevin O'Conner's new off-Broadway show is reviewed favorably in last week's Newsweek magazine. He's the brother of local attorney Dennis O'Conner and a budding talent on the Great White Way . . .

HUGH HEFNER tells us that his "constant companion" (as he calls her), Barbara Klein, will appear on the cover of the July issue of Playboy. She's a rare beauty. We asked her how she can afford to be away from U.C.L.A. so often. "We're in a break," said Barbara. But weren't you and Hef just in Acapulco? "That wasn't a break," she admitted, "but as long as you read the books, you're all right." Wonder how many books she brought along this trip? Didn't think to ask . . .

Klein

and were glad to be alive to do so. Surprise! Their jungle host provided them with fine wines, a banquet and such agreeable accommodations that they could hardly believe their eyes — or luck . . .

MAYOR FASIS's allegiance to the TV media seems to be expanding — he recently purchased a Panasonic TV for the Office of Information & Complaints. So they can all watch "As the World Turns" perhaps? . . . Singing the Academy Award-nominated songs at the annual ceremony will be Frank Sinatra ("Star"), Jose Feliciano ("Windmills of Your Mind"), Aretha Franklin ("Funny Girl"), Abbey Lincoln ("For Love of Ivy") and Juliet Prowse in a production number of "Chitty Chitty Bang Bang" . . . Bumper sticker at Ala Moana Center: "That's A Lot of Bull!" In small print above it appeared "Black Bull Scotch is 100 Proof" . . .

A SIXTH GRADER at the Outrigger Canoe Club contributed this riddle: "What was the war cry of the medieval peasants' revolt?" Answer: "Serfs-Up" . . . Helen Quach, young Chinese gal who's assistant conductor of the New York Philharmonic, arrives today for a couple of days rest before proceeding to Australia. Last summer she took the Tokyo Symphony on a tour through Japan for six weeks . . .

GUIDO SALMAGGI, the City's auditorium's director, called us excitedly from Fresno. He offered Honolulu and the HIC as the convention site for the International Association of Arena Managers for 1972 and the Western District Managers unanimously approved it. Now if the managers from other areas agree (as Guido thinks they will) at the next conclave in St. Louis in July, another important group will be flocking here for its convention . . .

MAR. 19 1969

Fashion show set at Outrigger

The Outrigger Canoe Club will be the site for Temple Emanu-El Sisterhood's annual fashion show and luncheon, Monday, March 24.

Fashions from the Hibiscus Boutique will highlight the event with proceeds used to benefit the Temple's religious school and Sisterhood's other projects.

For reservations, call Mrs. Hyman Greenstein 737-1158, Mrs. Jerome Tucker, 373-3897, or Mrs. Norton Langley, 732-1378.

MAR. 21 1969

Sisterhood Schedules Luncheon

The Outrigger Canoe Club will be the site for Temple Emanu-El Sisterhood's annual fashion show and luncheon Monday, March 24.

Fashions from The Hibiscus Boutique will highlight the event with proceeds used to benefit the Temple's religious school and Sisterhood's other projects.

For reservations, call Mrs. Hyman Greenstein at 737-1158, Mrs. Jerome Tucker at 373-3897, or Mrs. Norton Langley, 732-1378.

MAR. 21 1969

Sisterhood

The Sisterhood of Temple Emanu-El will have its annual fashion show-luncheon Monday at the Outrigger Canoe Club. Fashions will be from the Hibiscus Boutique and proceeds will be used for the religious school at the Temple.

Tickets and reservations may be had by calling Mrs. Hyman Greenstein, 737-1158, Mrs. Jerome Tucker, 373-3897, or Mrs. Norton Langley, 732-1378.