Outrigger 9-8 on week trip

The Outrigger Canoe Club men's volleyball squad took a week trip to Southern California and came back with a 9-8 record against ranked teams.

The squad — Chris Crabb, Paul McLoughlin, Tony Crabb, Tom Madison, Charles Jenkins, Jon Haneberg, Buster Chapman, Larry Woodruff and Tom Haine — defeated such powerhouses as Balboa Bay Club and San and Sea Club, but lost to teams like Chart House and UC Santa Barbara.

The trip was a tuneup for the Nationals in May at Denver.

JACK CIONE PRESENTS! Most of those who attended "Aida" at the HIC came away with the feeling that Louise Pearl, who as Amneris "bathed" behind a gauze curtain, was wearing a body stocking of some sort. Not so, say those who lingered around backstage. In fact, a phalanx of stagehands stood around holding up flats along the sides of the stage so the topless Miss Pearl could be seen only by the audience and not the offstage cast and crew . . . A club bulletin in S.F. began, "Lunch will be gin at noon sharp," indicating that either the typist or the typewriter had a spaced out problem . . . Danny Kaleikini seems to be everywhere these days — the Hawaiian Open, the Mike Douglas TV'er, the Easter Seal Campaign promotions and this afternoon at Kaneohe to provide entertainment for President Nixon's arrival . . . Incidentally, we don't know if the arrival ceremony was supposed to be an elite affair, but one suspects not when a stack of "Invited Guest" tickets were discovered at the desk of the Outrigger Canoe Club, free for the picking . . .
