

Tonite's entertainment tip: 5th Dimension at the Ilikai . . . Tee-hee dept.: That page of astronaut pix in yesterday's Star-Bulletin showed the moon-men wives wearing orchid leis. Guess who sent them? An exec from this gazette . . . Melveen Leed to S.F. to sing tonite at the Mark Hopkins Hotel, then right back . . . His name sounds more appropriate for maybe heading up the Pony Express—but Allen Hoss is the big boss hereabouts for Western Airlines . . . Hot saloon biz in New York these days—homosexual clubs running wide open . . . Terrible timing: A smoking commercial directly following an American Cancer Society tobacco-cancer warning . . . Once upon a time Glen Campbell picked Arkansas cotton for $1 a day . . .

H'wood biz manager Irving Leonard due any day on biz and pleasure. Among his clients—Clint Eastwood, James Garner, etc. And he does not have contracts with any of 'em. Only a handshake . . . Manhattan phone books list 30 "Portnoys" and they're all complaining . . . Thanks to the many fans of early screen star Dorothy Mackail for sending in long ago movie photos and writeups. We've forwarded 'em all to her at the Royal—permanent HQ . . . You can bet $1,000 a card or dice roll at Caesars Palace in Vegas . . .

Garner

The Mark Johnsons bought a number of Shirley Cunningham black velvet paintings for their home in Freeport, Grand Bahama. Seems to be a run on Shirley's art among the local yachting set . . .

pencil jottings

John Mantley, "Gunsmoke" producer touring the nabor islands . . . The St. Petersburg (Fla.) evening independent gives the paper away free whenever it doesn't sunshine in that city. This happened on Monday, March 17th. First time in more than two years that the town had gone 24 hours without sunshine . . . Stan Randolph, United's station mgr. at Hilo, breaking out the Primo for employees as the airline boarded a record 1072 passengers last Sat. . . . Sign in a psychedelic music shop: "Rock with Whistler's Mother" . . .

When Ted Ballam, General Foods Corp. manager in Hawaii for five years, begins his new job for GF in Calif., it will be the first time in 17 years that he has lived on the Mainland. Ted spent 12 years in S. America and Puerto Rico before moving to the islands . . .

communiques

Pals urging Herman Lemke to make a dash for the City Council again. He probably will . . . First time a nat'l sailing championship will be held in the islands—the Cal-20 regatta Aug. 7-9 at Waikiki. Some 30 skippers (10 from here) compete . . . Reminder: The Grasshopper benefit show (Hawaii Diabetic Society) at the Outrigger Canoe Club Monday nite . . .

Alohaland summer ayem scenes on the Ala Wai: Boys diving for coins tossed from Kalakaua bridge . . . Canoe crews practicing for outrigger races . . . Fathers and sons fishing . . . Men of all ages jogging . . .

Honolulu newsstand

Planning Commission Chairman Ed Brennan now on the board of directors of the giant Mitsubishi Co. of Japan. No wonder Ed's been getting better with his chop sticks . . . After America left over $million in supplies and equipment on the moon, Bob Hope cracked—"nobody there and we're already giving them foreign aid!" . . .

wedding march is on for Oahu couples

NANCY HARLOCKER'S date book

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas S. Abel Sr. are anticipating the arrival of their nephew, Miller Sproull, today from Anniston, Ala., for the wedding of their son, Tommy Jr., to Gigi Christenson. The small family wedding will take place Saturday in the garden of the Abels' Diamond Head home.

Gigi, daughter of Lt. Col. (USMC, Ret.) and Mrs. C. L. Christenson of Kailua, has been showered with parties given by Mrs. Glen Peyton, Mrs. Donald Oswald and Mrs. Bernard Powers. Both Gigi and Tommy were honored last Saturday at an informal dinner party given by Mrs. Charles Rogers.

After the wedding the senior Abels will begin plans for their move to Arcadia in September, and will turn their home of many years over to the newlyweds. "It's just wonderful," said Eva Abel. "The house comes with our little pet dog and, of course, we've been granted visiting privileges."

made to order

Pretty Wendy Guy is counting the hours instead of the days now before her marriage Saturday to Gary Griffin at the Church of the Holy Nativity. When Wendy strolls down the aisle of the church, she'll be wearing an original gown designed by her sister Julie, who also made the gown she'll wear as her sister's maid of honor. Julie was graduated recently from the University of California at Santa Barbara where she studied fashion design.

After the wedding there'll be a garden reception at the Wailupe Circle home of the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas E. Guy Jr.

Among parties preceding the wedding have been an informal family get-together given by Mrs. Smith Hodgins and a luncheon-shower given by Mrs. Douglas Schleif, who will be a bridesmaid with Kulia Simpson.

Another shower was given Tuesday by Mrs. Russell L. Smith Jr. and Mrs. Robert P. Brown.

Gary, who has been teaching at Iolani School this summer, was joined by his mother, Mrs. James Brogan of Medford, Ore., and grandmother, Mrs. Vida Griffin of El Turas, Calif., Sunday.

Chicago bound

Newlyweds Haunani and David Clowers will be off to Chicago to live shortly after their recent wedding here. The bride is the former Haunani Trask, daughter of Mrs. Haunani R. Trask and Bernard K. Trask.

The bride is an honor graduate of Kam School and attended the University of Wisconsin and Drake University where her husband was an English instructor for three years.

In the fall Haunani will continue her education at the University of Chicago and her husband will enter law school there. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Max W. Clowers who came from their home in Milwaukee, Wis., for the wedding.

changing times

Artist Bill Erwin doesn't doubt for a minute that times have changed. When Bill and Lou Erwins' 8-year-old granddaughter Kimberlee Morris arrived from San Francisco this week to visit them, Bill was impressed that she courageously made the flight alone.

"Pan Am does a great job of caring for children traveling alone," Bill said, "but nevertheless, kids are more akamai today. When I was her age I'd have been scared to go down the road to the next town alone."

Kim is the daughter of the former Valerie Erwin and her husband, Dr. Robert L. Morris, a pathologist in San Francisco.

visitors for lunch

A round of luncheons was on tap this week for visitors. Monday Ruth Engel, wife of Rear Adm. (USCG) Benjamin Engel, Commander of the Pacific Coast Guard Command, invited friends in to meet their daughter Penny (Mrs. Bowdoin) Lusk of Baltimore, Md.

nick. The visitors have been here three weeks and will return to their home in La Habre, Calif., tomorrow.

* * * *

Mrs. A. E. Minvielle, national president of the National Society of The Arts and Letters, honored Mrs. Samuel Watkins of El Paso at a luncheon at the Outrigger Canoe Club Tuesday. Mrs. Watkins is founder of the Honolulu chapter and National Librarian of NSAL. She arrived last weekend on the Lurline with her daughter, Mrs. Robert Morran of Scottsdale, Ariz., and is staying at the Royal Hawaiian Hotel for 10 days.

Luncheon guests included members of the Honolulu chapter.

ships ahoy

Honorary French Consul Max Pilliard and Mrs. Pilliard opened their Maunalani Heights home last evening for a cocktail reception honoring the captain and officers of the French destroyer escort Protet. The ship, stopping in Honolulu this week, is commanded by Capt. Victor Servent.

And men of the visiting Canadian Navy ships will be honored at a reception Rear Adm. (USN) Donald C. Davis is planning at the Pearl Harbor Officers' Club Tuesday night. The cadet training ships are the Yukon, Chaudiere and Columbia and arrived at Pearl Harbor Monday, each carrying seven officers and 17 cadets.

lady with a heart

If there's one thing Carla Beach has, it's a sympathetic heart for a good-looking bachelor. When actor George Lazenby, who is best known as the new James Bond, was in town last year, Carla and husband Donn rounded up the prettiest beauties they could find to meet him. They promised him an encore if he returned, and he did—last week. Once again Carla and Donn produced the beauties for a gala party at their Kalaniana'ole Highway home.

The Beaches and George are long-time friends and when Carla was in England several months ago she watched the filming of George's new movie, "On Her Majesty's Ship," due to be released in December.

cool reception

Six-week-old Joel Michael Fallago sampled his first ice cream after his christening last weekend at the Makalapa Chapel. The baby is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Fallago who invited over 100 friends to an after-christening party at Hickam Club 3.

The ceremony was performed by Rear Adm. H. J. Rortge in the presence of the baby's godmother Lori Pada and Ray Goss, proxy for godfather Narciso Tulao, who's in Vietnam. At the party afterwards, Mrs. Tulao offered the baby ice cream, "and he loved it," said the baby's mother.

* * * *