Dave Donnelly's Hawaii

AMFAC'S Wally Willis amused at the Outrigger Canoe Club's recent news announcement: "The popular Sunday Manoa Trio is now playing on Saturday evenings as well as on Fridays . . ." Soon they'll have to call themselves the Daily Manoa Trio . . . Christie Schainck writes, "Do you know that Maurice Chevalier and I share your birthday. He's older (81); I'm younger! Also it was Jack and Jackie Kennedy's anniversary!" We knew about Maurice and the Kennedys . . . Tony Schoepf, former United Air Lines sales manager here (now a v.p. in N.Y.) categorically denies that the new non-stop N.Y. to Honolulu flight will be known as "Schoepf's Gourmet Service." . . .

NO, THE male lead in "Hair," should it ever get unsnarled, will not be named Dan Druff. And shame on you for asking . . . From Joyce Helseth's "Tidbits" column in the Gonzales (Calif.) Tribune: "Now that Alaska has struck it super rich on oil . . . I recommend the State issue free electric blankets and give each registered voter a two-week vacation in Hawaii at government expense" . . . Hanging ten after the surfer vote, Tom Gill (whose unannounced campaign for Governor is well under way) will attend a meeting of Save Our Surf, an organization formed to protect our watery playlands, at the Outrigger Canoe Club tomorrow. And he's no doubt hoping Governor Burns will take a wipe out in 1970 . . .

Serving Public Need

SIR: We have been following with interest your articles about Queen's Surf, which we hope can be saved from destruction. We believe it is serving a public need.

Socially we qualify for the Outrigger Canoe Club, but financially we cannot afford it. Consequently, Queen's Surf is the one place where we may go and also entertain our friends from the Mainland at a reasonable price. We all enjoy being near the water and watching the sunsets.

As Spencecliff has built up the business, we feel that they should have the contract for as long as they wish it.

Bob Turnbull

(Editor's Note: One of the Chaplains of Waikiki Beach is Bob Turnbull who also serves as the minister of youth at The Penthouse Church, 333 Lewers near Kalakaua. For many years he was a successful movie and TV actor in Hollywood. He is a columnist in all seven Hawaii Press newspapers.)

Aloha!
Have you heard about Secret Agent 002 who's vacationing in Waikiki? He's not licensed to kill - just to aggravate a little.

The SOS is SRO at the Big O. Translation - The Society of Seven is doing Standing Room Only biz at The Outrigger Hotel. Isle residents and tourists alike are wild about the exciting sounds of these seven Hong Kongites. Go see why and be prepared to stand in line.

The Choy Brothers, top local folk singing duet, is the guest music this Sunday night at the informal evening service of Waikiki's Prince of Peach Lutheran Church, 7:15. The program is aired on the all-Hawaiian radio station, KCCN.

Mahalo to you, "CY," for writing, but for YOUR information, I've mentioned The Potted Palm being at JB's in several past columns. If you read it regularly you'd know.

And speaking of the HHA, they're sponsoring DR. CHRISTIAAN BARNARD, noted South African heart transplant surgeon, who is speaking on "Hearts-Husbands" at the Royal Hawaiian Hotel on Tuesday the 21st. Call the HHA for details.

A Beach Press reader from Marked Tree, Arkansas, writes and asks, "How come you mention only a few of the Waikiki hotels and night spots and often repeat the same ones?" Simple answer, my dear, and that is only a few bother to mail in news to me. If it's the same ones, then the same ones will get the publicity for you thousands and thousands of Beach Press readers. Fair enough?

What's intoxication? It's when you feel sophisticated and can't pronounce it!

Aloha and welcome to KEN FRANKEL, new director of publicity for the Honolulu Symphony Society. Bob is akamai in music and liked in local circles. Speaking of the HSS, the Women's Association is having an "open house" this morn (Fri.) at MRS. CHRIS HEMMETER's pad, 4815 Kainapau Place. This informal coffee hour will feature DR. LEE WINTERS speaking.

Yours truly went bezerk last week while eating a salad in the Hong Kong Junk at the Ilikai. Never have I crunched into a salad that was oozing the all-time, lip-smacking dressing. It was the Ilikai's sesame seed dressing and my palate screamed for not only seconds but a fanatical thirds. My date couldn't believe it, and neither will yours. Try it. Also THE MARIACHIS LOS CAMPEROS de MEXICO musical troupe is authentic and you feel you're watching the musical Zapatas and Villas of the old country before your eyes.

FRED WORTHINGTON, now appearing on the 88 in the Pot O' Gold Lounge at the Hawaiian Village, once accompanied DINAH WASHINGTON, RUTH BROWN and ANITA O'DAY.

And finally: A well-adjusted person is one who can play golf, bridge and monopoly as if they were merely games. Mahalo!

OPENING TONIGHT at the Kona Hilton is Alex McAngus. He closes there Sunday and opens Tuesday night at the Nalei in Hilo . . . Al Lopaka reopens at the Queen's Surf on Wednesday. He's will be heard Oct. 15 & 16 at the Kahala Hilton as the hotel presents "A Night in Old Germany" at the "Maile Ratskeller." . . .

WE MENTIONED last week that the Outrigger Canoe Club lists Camera Hawaii's Werner Stoy among those members with no photo available and we ran his picture. Now comes a card from Viki, secretary to the manager of the club saying, "We got our picture of Werner Stoy. I just cut it out of the Star-Bulletin." You're welcome . . . Mrs. Jack Leong wants everyone to know that they can get tickets to St. Louis High's fashion show Oct. 25, "Mom, Pop 'n' Lollipops," in the Ilikai's Pacific Ballroom. Call 923-5791 for tickets.
